In regard to petit jurors for this city, the power of selecting such list, by the act of 1847, is vested in the Commissioner of Jurors for this city.

It has been supposed by the present commissioner, that under this law he is clothed with the exclusive and unlimited discretion of excluding from the list for any one year individuals justly qualified and legally liable to the performance of jury duty, and this power has been in various instances exercised. The Grand Jury fully believe, that in the exercise of this supposed discretionary power, the present Commissioner has acted from good motives, and with an eye to the public interests. But they are advised that the power does not legally exist, and most certainly should not be placed in the hands of one person. It is sufficient to say it may be abused. The law, in terms, requires at the hands of every citizen possessing the qualifications required by law for jurors, and not exempt by express provisions of the statute, the performance of this necessary, although at times onerous duty. It has provided as far as possible, for the equal distribution of the burden, and in the hands of the courte it has placed the power of examining, for good and sufficient reasons, those who are summoned to the performance of that duty at any particular term. There it belongs, and there it may safely rest.

The duty of drawing jurors is vested in the County Clerk, and of summoning, when thus drawn in the Sheriff. The presence of the Sheriff or under sheriff and one Judge, or of two Judges, is required at such drawing. In practice this has been violated, and the clearly illegal custom has prevailed, of many aldermen signing certificates in blank, thus certifying to drawings at which they were not present, and palpably violating the law. For the future the practice, it is believed, will not be continued, and the exempt, has led also to a non-compliance with the law regulating the duties of the clerk of the county, in reference to such jurors. From this remissness the Grand Jury are ha Jury are happy to exclude the Clerk of the Oyer and Ierminer and General Sessions, and the Clerk of the Superior Court.

In the summoning of jurors, it is clearly the intention of the law charging the Sheriff with this duty, to require, when performed by a deputy, that it should be done by a gwern deputy. This has not been the case; and the almost manyoidable result has been carelessness and remissness, and, in many instances, mistakes and irregularities in the summoning and returning of persons, leading to confusion and public inconvenience. The attention of the various officers charged with these several duties having thus been called to the necessity of applying the appropriate remedy, it is to be hoped the evils will hereafter be corrected. It should also be stated that the irregularities oom plained of are not of recent introduction.

On concluding their presentment, the Grand Jury call the attention of the Court to the necessity of some law providing for the prampt and speedy disposition of all cases of criminal offences of a less grade than felony, without the necessity of sending such cases before the Grand Jury. This can be constitutionally done, and the right of trial by jury at the same time preserved.

There were other matters which the Grand Jury were precluded from acting upon for want of time; among which may be designated the fil ventilated and entirely insufficient tenement buildings occupied by the poor of this city. The Grand Jury deem this a great evil, calling for some immediate action upon the part of the authorities, or the Legislaturs—and, also, that the police of the entry should be placed beyond political influences, and their mode of appointment vested in hands above such considerations as would control their selection. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Sentence—At the opening of the court this morning.

John Tuconey pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree, in causing the death of his wife, under circumstances lately detailed in evidence before the Coroner's Juty, and, after addressing to him some very impressive remarks. Judge Beebe sentenced him to be imprised in the City Prison for fitteen days, and to pay a fine of one hundred and fifty dollars.

The Case of James B. Shepherd.—The Judge announced that the sentences on James B. Shepherd, convicted of false pretences, would be deferred till next term, as a bill of exceptions was in course of preparation by the defendant's counsel.

Promising Fouths.—Two 'hard'' lecking be-of exceptions was in course of preparation by the sand's counsel.

Fromising Fouths.—Two "hard" leoking boys, named Hally and Young, in custody on a charge of robbing a sailor, were brought up, and the Judge said they must be discharged, as the prosecutor had gone to sea. He would advise them to leave the city without delay, as they were marked as old offenders, and he thought they would be good subjects for Australia. They had better "clear out" at once a piece of advice of which they availed them selves of with great alsority.
